But not so fast...there are plenty of healthy dishes too. Taking place at MetLife Stadium from June 21-July 8, 2018, Fairgoers of all ages can experience all the delicious adventures their taste buds could ever desire.

"If there is one constant with State Fair Meadowlands, it's the ever-growing popularity of our food. In fact, our food vendors are just as popular if not even more so than our rides and entertainment," State Fair Vice President Al Dorso Jr. said. "No matter what you crave, or whether you're eating heartily or healthily, there are plenty of delicious choices for everybody."

For those bringing the stretchy pants, and you know who you are, get ready for your mouth to water! Are you looking for something fried, or maybe the question should be what don't we have that's fried?? We have everything from fried bacon cheese balls, chicken parm balls and taco balls to fried mac and cheese, fried oatmeal crème, deep fried peanut butter and jelly, fried Oreos and that's the tip of the iceberg! And don't forget we have bacon! That's right, whether you crave bacon wrapped meatballs, sausage, corn dogs, chocolate or just a good ol' giant bacon on a stick, we got you covered!

Are you seeking more of an ethnic meal? Foodies will be happy to find a diverse selection of freshly made Greek (e.g. gyros, shish-kabobs, souvlaki) as well as Italian dishes (e.g. stromboli, pizza, pasta, chicken parm). Sweet tooth cravings will be quelled by the Fair's wealth of desserts, candy and more including funnel cake, smoothies, maple candy, candy and caramel apples, Italian ices and the best soft serve ice cream in the state! Now we know what you're thinking, hey what about the healthy foods?? We haven't forgotten you!! Health food enthusiasts can find a delicious selection of fresh vegetables (e.g. avocado, broccoli, cauliflower), Italian and Greek salads too. And let's not forget ice cold refreshments! Anyone's hot thirst can be quenched by freshly made lemonade, ice tea, shakes, malts, homemade sodas and more.
